OCEAN IS MY LOVER

THE SECOND DATE

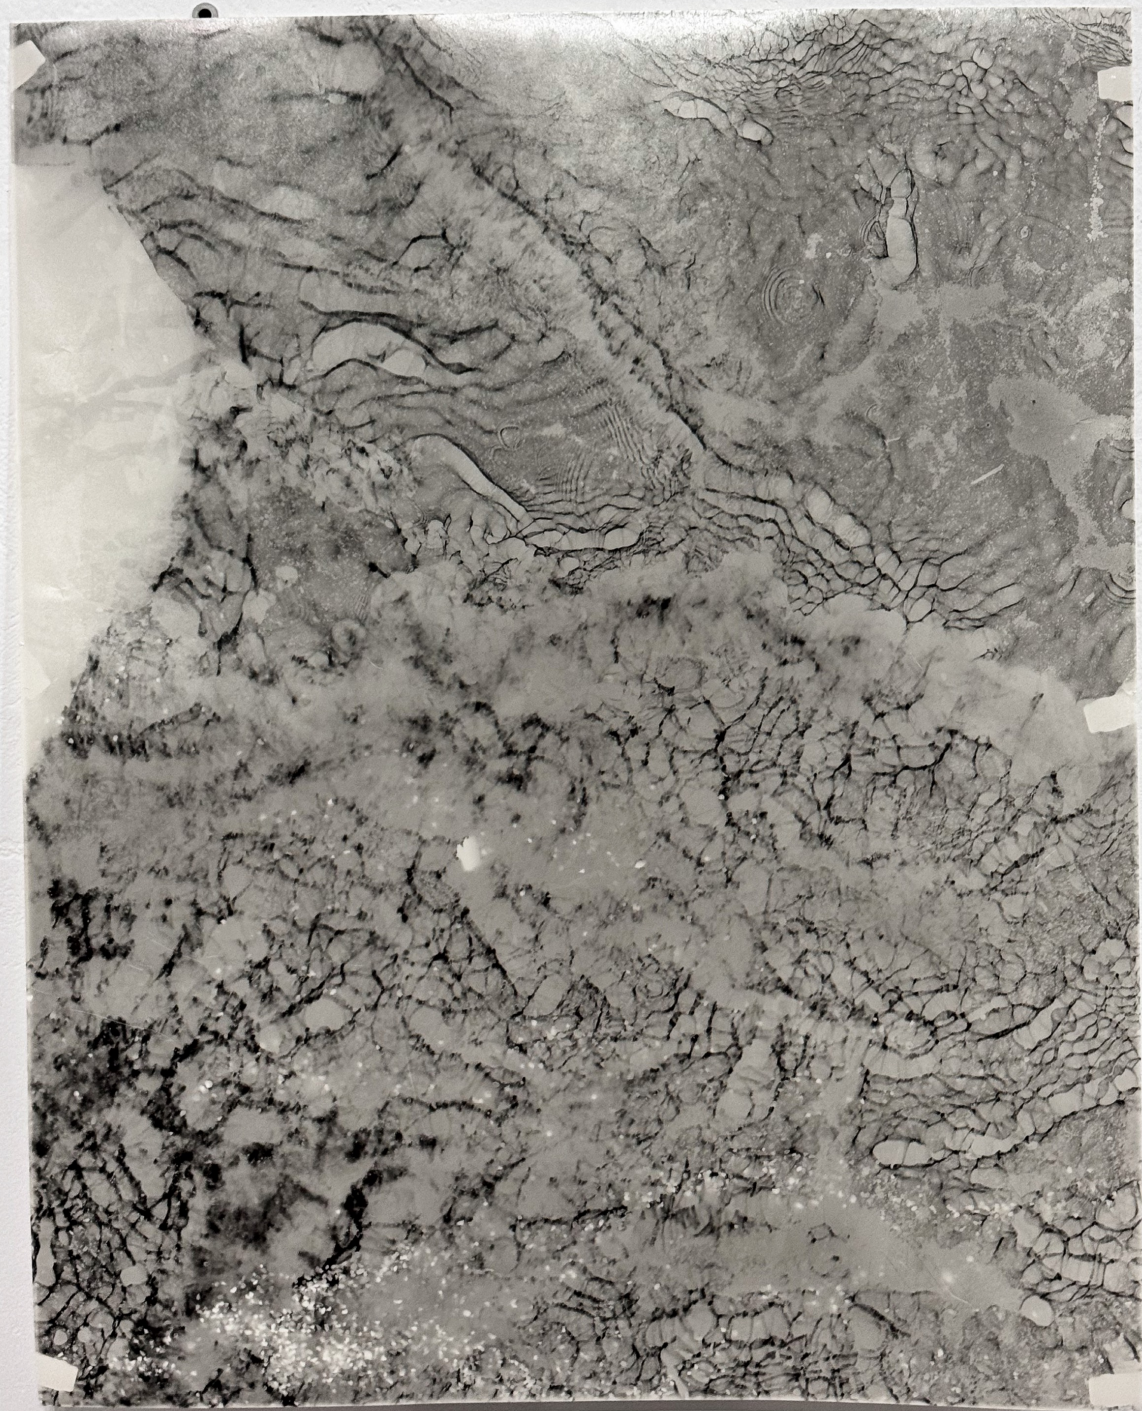

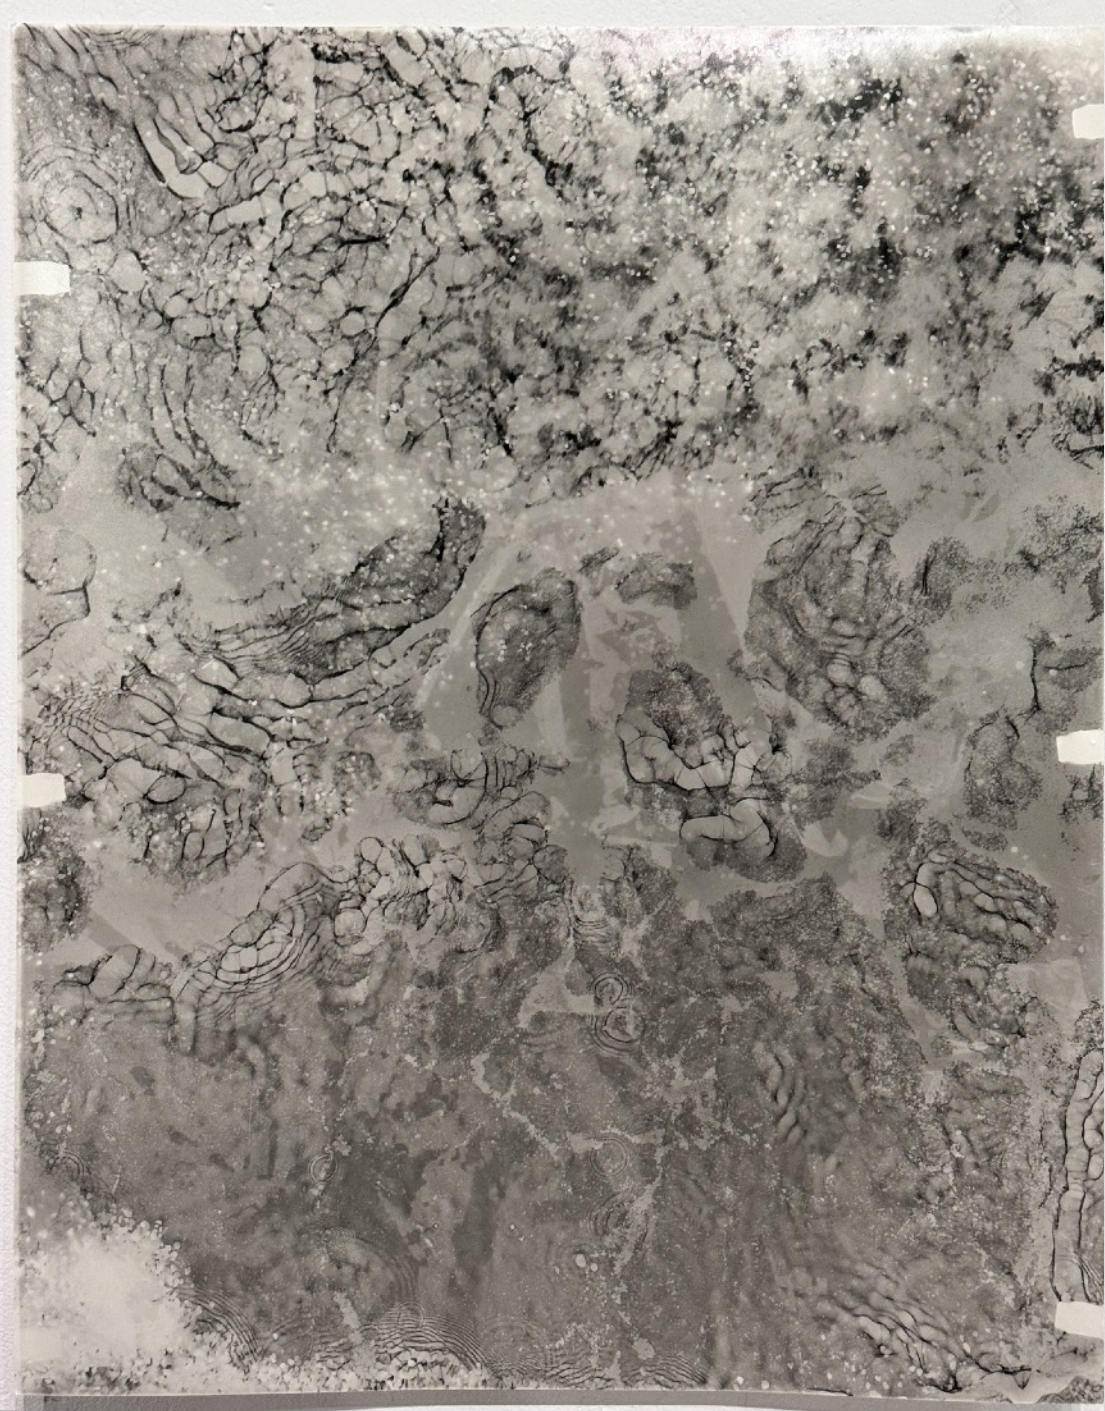

NEW MOON IN CAPRICORN, STORM

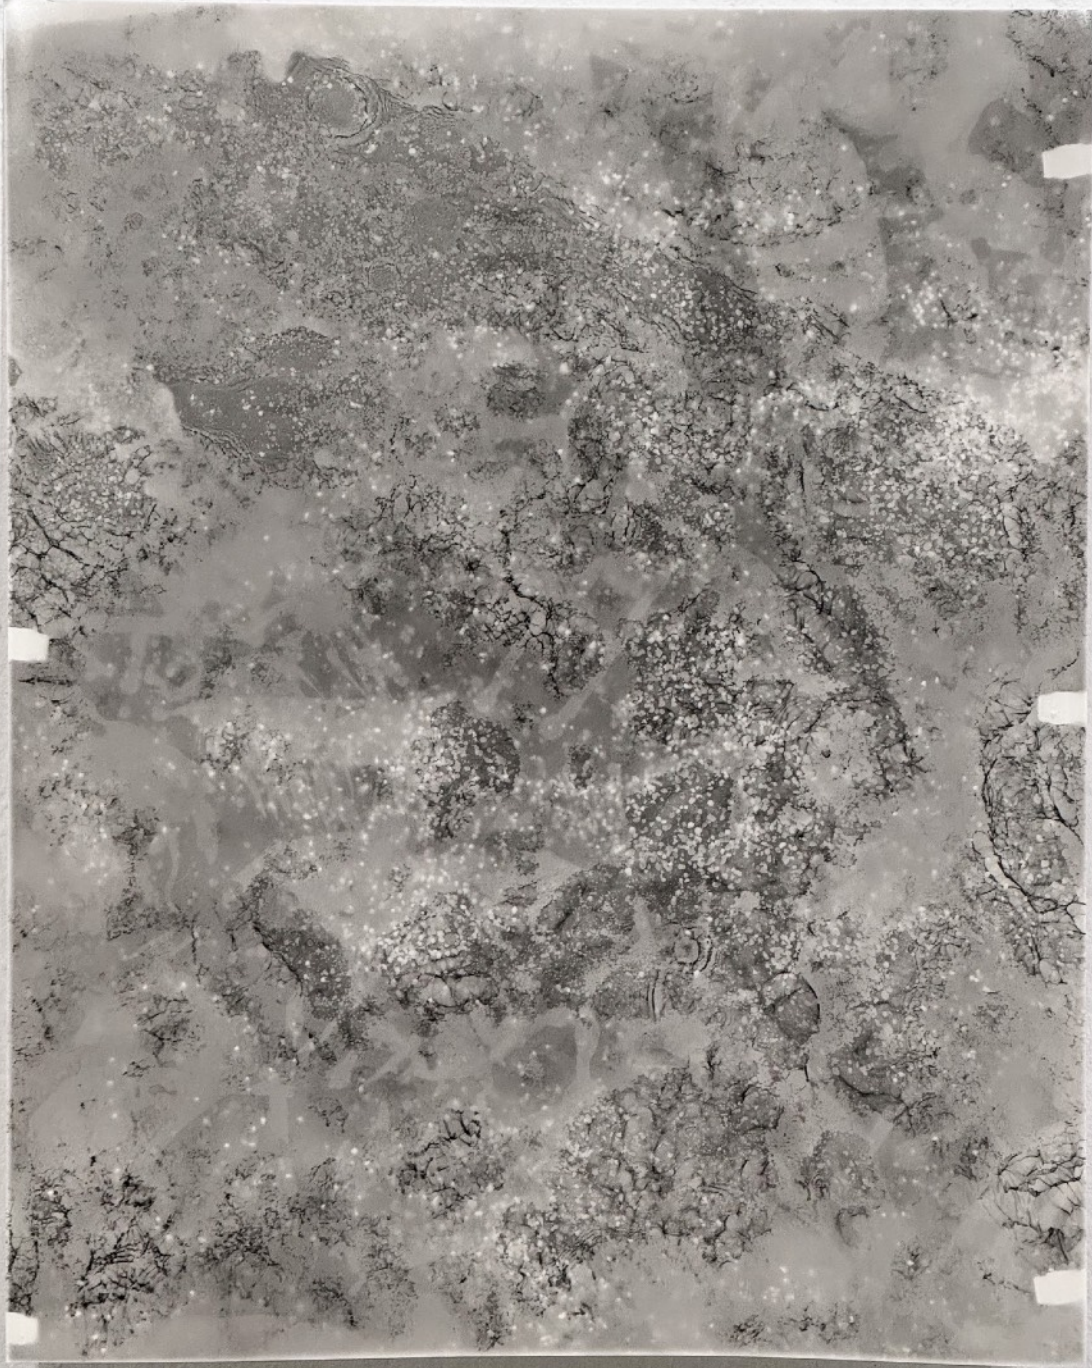

One day
I walked into the Atlantic with an unmistakable sensation of entering another human's body.

I express my love through photography, so I decided to make my lover's portrait.
That is what you are looking at.

We had 2 dates:

06.02.25 in Porto - with the Ocean -
masculine energy

18.01.26 in Barcelona - with the Sea - feminine energy

Both carry salty waters, but one became a symbol of my past (The Date) and the second - of my future (The Second Date).

Each of those 9 watergrams is a unique romantic story. I am starting to hear them and will document when the time comes.
